APPLICATION GUIDE FOR THE GRADUATE PROGRAM OF the Graduate School of Mathematical Sciences
The University of Tokyo

1. Please fill in the application form.

2. Send the application to

International Liaison Office
Graduate School of Mathematical Sciences
The University of Tokyo
3-8-1 Komaba, Meguro-ku, Tokyo 153-8914
Japan

along with

(1)* Your academic record for undergraduate and/or graduate studies.

(2)* A certificate of graduation or expected graduation: a document certifying that you have completed the required courses of your latest academic study or that you will complete these courses at a certain specified future date.

(3) At least two letters of recommendation: by your supervisor and by at least one other person who can evaluate your academic achievements. The letters should be sealed in separate envelopes by the recommenders themselves.

(4) Materials proving your Japanese and/or English ability (if any).

(5) Photocopies or Pdf files of your articles on mathematics (if any).

(6) Any other document which supports the applicant.

*(1) (2) Copied certificates are not effective. It is necessary that original documents (issued by an authorized institution) are submitted.

3. The date of entrance is April 1 or October 1*. Please mark your preference in the application form.

*As stated in the Guidelines for Admission for International Students", the October entrance applies only to students with a Government Scholarship.

・Applications must be filed by _____. (Scheduled for late July)

・We are unable to return any of your documents, and that we are unable to consider incomplete applications.